AIA Notice to Consumers

AIA Canada confirms that it is not mandatory that [customers] return [their] vehicles to an authorized dealership in order to maintain the integrity of the vehicle warranty.

Here are some things you should know:

- In each province in Canada, all automotive service professionals, dealerships, or otherwise, must meet the same criteria in order to practice their trade.
- The replacement components used by this establishment to service [customer's vehicles meet or exceed] the specifications of the components manufactured by the automaker's parts suppliers.
- Consumer protection legislation in Canada favors the consumer. Dealerships cannot restrict the choice of where vehicles are serviced for regular maintenance.

New Part Numbers

In our commitment to providing “accessibility to a broad selection of product that meets customers’ needs” CANUSA/ CDC has added many new part numbers to our inventory. Contact your local sales representative for a list of new part numbers and programs to ensure you are receiving the best service possible.

ACDelco is pleased to announce the launch of the Beam Wiper Blade with Spoiler. This product features an aerodynamic spoiler that helps reduce windlift and enhances styling. CANUSA/CDC has added 22 part numbers to Line 08 to cover the addition of these new blades.
